Creepy Monsters, Sleepy Monsters: A Lullaby by Jane Yolen ...

Creepy Monsters, Sleepy Monsters by Jane Yolen, illustrated by Kelly Murphy is a not too scary monster lullaby featuring monster children who don't want to go to bed. Monster children get out of school and creep, crawl, run, stumble, hip-hop, tumble, slither and run home for a bite to eat.

Creepy Monsters, Sleepy Monsters by Jane Yolen

The publisher says, "Creep, gurgle, crawl, tumble! Meet two young monsters who are far from scary—they're too busy having fun. They go to school, play outside with their friends, and eat after-school snacks. But they also have a bedtime, whether or not they're ready for it!"

Two rambunctious monsters creep, gurgle, crawl, and tumble before falling asleep.

Two rambunctious monsters creep, gurgle, crawl, and tumble before falling asleep.

Stretching, twirling, tumbling, jumping Welcome to a playground teeming with monsters, bristling with energy and conjuring up hairy ways to have fun. Monsters swing and slide and piggy-back ride. Monsters run three-legged races and fall on their faces. Monsters eat monster lollipops and tussle for the fountain.

Two little monsters have fun going to school and playing with their friends, but even a busy day does not make bedtime any easier.

In this spellbinding, lavishly illustrated story that Diary of a Wimpy Kid author Jeff Kinney calls "wildly imaginative and totally terrifying," two unlikely friends face down their worst fears in order to stop their small town--and themselves--from disappearing. Levi and Kat are about to discover a very dark side to their neighborhood. Nothing ever seems out of place in the safe, suburban town of Cowslip Grove. Lawns are neatly mowed, sidewalks are tidy, and the sounds of ice cream trucks fill the air. But now . . . kids have been going missing--except no one even realizes it, because no one remembers them. Not their friends. Not their teachers. Not even their families. But Levi and Kat do remember, and suddenly only they can see why everyone is in terrible danger when the night air rolls in. Now it is up to Levi and Kat to fight it and save the missing kids before it swallows the town whole.

'Robert Starling's mock scary scenes of the would-be terrifying beasties ... are hilarious; and there are some deliciously funny words spoken by bit part players ...

She tucks me tightly into bed, then asks me if my spider's fed and hangs my favorite bat above me. That's how I know my mama loves me! At once tender and funny, this monster bedtime story is guaranteed to generate giggles, tickles, and plenty of monster hugs.

As Posy is baking cupcakes one rainy day, a big furry hand taps on her window, then a growl and a knock bring her to her door, where a scary--but somewhat familiar--monster waits.

A hungry monster seeks a different type of bedtime snack.

Nothing frightens Winifred Schnitzel--but she DOES need her sleep, and the neighborhood monsters WON'T let her be! Every night they sneak in, growling and belching and making a ruckus. Winifred constructs clever traps, but nothing stops these crafty creatures. What's a girl to do? (Hint: Monsters HATE kisses!) The delightfully sweet ending will have every kid--and little monster--begging for an encore.
