World Regions in Global Context presents a strong global sensibility and an emphasis on current
concerns, with models
of interdependent
development, spatial
and social inequality,
and questions of spatial justice. The authors maintain that regions are the outcomes of a set of twin forces of globalization and regionalization.

Therefore, each regional chapter stresses the global systems of

connection that drive
unique regional

processes, making

regions different. By studying regions,

students not only learn the critical elements of different places, but also come to understand the
