It 's July 1943 and the world has been at war for almost four long years. One morning, young widow Emmy Penry-Jones discovers two men washed up on the beach below her house on the west coast of Cornwall. Emmy is used to rescuing washed-up sailors, the deadly Battle of the Atlantic exacting a heavy toll on shipping. But these men are not like the shipwrecked sailors she has rescued before and Emmy is soon drawn into a web of intrigue that will test both her ingenuity and her patriotism. Rocked by accusations of war crimes against a man she knows to be innocent, Emmy launches a bid to defend him, all too aware that the accusers could turn on her. The trial marks a turning point and Emmy is drawn further into a deadly cycle of post-war retribution from which only one man can save her.

After landing a job as an assistant and a New York City modeling agency, small-town Southerner, Emmy, resists the advances of Ben, an agency model who finds her reluctance refreshing and intriguing.

ECPA BESTSELLER • A compelling emotional and spiritual case against hurry and in favor of a slower, simpler way of life " As someone all too familiar with ' hurry sickness, ' I desperately needed this book. " —Scott Harrison, New York Times best-selling author of Thirst " Who am I becoming? " That was the question nagging pastor and author John Mark Comer. Outwardly, he appeared successful. But inwardly, things weren ' t pretty. So he turned to a trusted mentor for guidance and heard these words: " Ruthlessly eliminate hurry from your life. Hurry is the great enemy of the spiritual life. " It wasn ' t the response he expected, but it was—and continues to be—the answer he needs. Too often we treat the symptoms of toxicity in our modern world instead of trying to pinpoint the cause. A growing number of voices are pointing at hurry, or busyness, as a root of much evil. Within the pages of this book, you ' ll find a fascinating roadmap to staying emotionally healthy and spiritually alive in the chaos of the modern world.

"The bestselling author of The Ruthless Elimination of Hurry equips readers to recognize the lies and resist the forces that seek to steal their happiness, wholeness, and holiness"--

In the beginning, God created Adam. Then he made Eve. And ever since we ' ve been picking up the pieces. Loveology is just that—a theology of love. With an autobiographical thread that turns a book into a story, pastor and speaker John Mark Comer shares about what is right in male/female relationships—what God intended in the Garden. And about what is wrong—the fallout in a post-Eden world. Loveology starts with marriage and works backward. Comer deals with sexuality, romance, singleness, and what it means to be male and female; ending with a raw, uncut, anything goes Q and A dealing with the most asked questions about sexuality and relationships. This is a book for singles, engaged couples, and the newly married—both inside and outside the church—who want to learn what the Scriptures have to say about sexuality and relationships. For those who are tired of Hollywood ' s propaganda, and the church ' s silence. And for people who want to ask the why questions and get intelligent, nuanced, grace-and-truth answers, rooted in the Scriptures.

A Christmas Carol in Prose, Being a Ghost Story of Christmas, usually known just as A Christmas Carol is a fairy-tale novel by a British classic Charles Dickens, that was published in 1843. It consists of five chapters, or staves as the author named them. Among all the stories from Christmas Books by Dickens this one became the most popular story about Christmas in Great Britain and outside the country. The main character is an old gloomy miser Ebenezer Scrooge, who doesn ' t love anyone or anything except his money. He doesn ' t understand why everybody is so happy about Christmas and with disgust, refuses the invitation from his kind nephew to celebrate this holiday together with his family. On Christmas Eve, the ghost of his former business partner Jacob Marley appeared in front of Scrooge, and it changed him drastically...

"One icy winter's evening in Budapest, a man runs straight into John Taylor as he walks home through the narrow streets. John falls over into the snow and looks up at the man's face. 'I felt very afraid. Because what I saw was me. My face looking down at me. My mouth saying sorry.' Who is the man, and how will John's life change?

Psychology student Ashlyn Drake's neat, orderly life takes a turn for the crazy when she finds the perfect subject for her amnesia thesis-- a young man without any memory of his previous life, including the murder he's accused of committing. She's drawn to him like a moth to a flame. Even handcuffed to his hospital bed, he could pass for a cologne ad-- Scent de Insanity. She's determined to help him solve the mystery of his past, using his cryptic tattoos, and his paintings that scream of a dark. When she finally learns his secret, there's no telling which one is the real him: the gentle lover she's fallen for or the troubled man with a dark past.
