A few weeks back, I had the opportunity to hear Georgeanne Brennan speak. She is an author that I truly enjoy. She lives in this area and has a new cookbook out. I love her way in the kitchen. She is influenced much by the French country ways. The idea of eating what's in season, better yet, eating what's in your garden.

The weather has started to cool in New York, giving way to sweater weather almost overnight. This sudden change in season made for a fall renaissance in the kitchen last week, as I pulled out favorite flavors and recipes. There's only one thing I'm absolutely excluding: pumpkin spice. Here's the thing: I have been known to indulge in a PSL every now and then.
